

Risk of Surface and Groundwater Contamination in Webster Township

Risk Level

The risk index is based upon three different factors. First, risk is based on a range of percentages of sand in various soil types, with the soil grid being given 0.4 weight. Second, risk is determined based on variation in elevation, which is given 0.2 weight. Third, risk is based on calculated distance from water features, which is given 0.4 weight

1:65,000

Source:
Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments
Michigan Center for Geographic Information's Data Library

Layout by:
L. Fomenko
CE 3995- 001
04/09/2015